Drummond)*.

Note by Mr Drummond.—"The impressions of the Portraits in this volume are unique, being the engravers' own proofs taken before the plates were cut into four separate plates. The series is in an octavo volume, under the title of 'The Effigies of the Kings of Scotland, carefully engraved from the Paintings in the Holyrood House.' Of this volume I have only seen one, which is in the library of the University of Edinburgh, but it is imperfect, wanting all the plates from Malcolm Canmore to Mary, and from Charles II. to the end of the set."

- 1886 PORTRAITS : THE MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION OF SCOTCH PORTRAITS formed by the late JAMES DRUMMOND, R.S.A., containing about 2500 Engravings, many of which are very scarce and valuable, and include Portraits of all Scotch Celebrities, Royal Personages (to which one of the volumes is entirely devoted), Statesmen, Authors, etc., etc. ; the whole are bound in 9 Volumes, large folio (not uniform).

This unique and extraordinary gathering of Scottish Portraits occupied the late distinguished Artist many years in forming and arranging ; and are all most carefully classified. It is quite safe to say that such a Collection has never before been made.

OF £150.
